

INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY POLICY (Includes Equal Opportunity and Sexual Harassment)

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to explain Templestowe Heights Primary School's commitment to making sure every member of our school community, regardless of their background or personal attributes, is treated with respect and dignity. Templestowe Heights Primary School strives to provide a safe, inclusive and supportive school environment which values the human rights of all students and staff. For staff, this policy should be read alongside the Department of Education and Training's Respectful Workplaces policies (including Equal Opportunity and Anti-Discrimination, Sexual Harassment and Workplace Bullying) which apply to all staff at Templestowe Heights Primary School.

POLICY

Definitions

Personal attribute: a personal characteristic that is protected by State or Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation. These include: race, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religious belief or activity, political belief or activity, age, intersex status, physical features, pregnancy, carer and parental status, breastfeeding, marital or relationship status, lawful sexual activity, employment activity, industrial activity, expunged homosexual conviction or personal association with anyone who is identified with reference to any protected attribute.

Direct discrimination: unfavourable treatment because of a person's protected attribute.

Indirect discrimination: imposing an unreasonable requirement, condition or practice that disadvantages a person or group of people with a protected attribute.

Sexual harassment: unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature towards another person which could reasonably be expected to make that other person feel offended, humiliated or intimidated. It may be physical, verbal, visual or written.

Disability harassment: humiliating comments or actions about a person's disability.

Vilification: conduct that incites hatred towards or revulsion or severe ridicule of a person or group of people on the basis of their race or religion.

Victimisation: subjecting a person or threatening to subject them to detrimental treatment because they (or their associate) has made an allegation of discrimination or harassment on the basis of a protected attribute (or asserted their rights under relevant policies or law).

Inclusion and diversity

Templestowe Heights Primary School is a multi-cultural, inclusive community that promotes tolerance and understanding. The school is committed to fostering a school community where all members of our school community are welcomed, accepted and treated equitably and with respect, regardless of their backgrounds or personal attributes (see above)..

Templestowe Heights Primary School acknowledges and welcomes the diversity of backgrounds and experiences in our school community and we will not tolerate behaviours, language or practices that label, stereotype or demean others. At Templestowe Heights Primary School we value the human rights of every student and we take our obligations under anti-discrimination laws and the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities seriously.

Templestowe Heights Primary School will:

- actively nurture and promote a culture and supportive curricula, that are inclusive, draw on and advance, diverse knowledge and experiences
- ensure that students are not discriminated against (directly or indirectly) and where necessary, are reasonably accommodated to participate in their education and school activities (eg schools sports, concerts, school ball, camps) on the same basis as their peers
- acknowledge and respond to the diverse needs, identities and strengths of all students
- encourage empathy and fairness towards others
- challenge stereotypes that promote prejudicial and biased behaviours and practices
- contribute to positive learning, engagement and wellbeing outcomes for students
- respond to complaints and allegations appropriately and ensure that students are provided all opportunities to participate, achieve and thrive at Templestowe Heights Primary School.

Bullying, unlawful discrimination, harassment, vilification and other forms of inappropriate behaviour targeting individuals or groups because of their personal attributes will not be tolerated at Templestowe Heights Primary School. We will take appropriate measures, consistent with our Student Wellbeing and Engagement and Bullying Prevention policies to respond to any such behaviour.

Students who may have experienced or witnessed this type of behaviour are encouraged to speak up and to let their teachers, parents or carers know about those behaviours to ensure that inappropriate behaviour can be addressed.

Reasonable adjustments for students with disabilities

Templestowe Heights Primary School also understands that it has a legal obligation to make reasonable adjustments to accommodate students with disabilities.

- A reasonable adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist students with disabilities to participate in their education on the same basis as their peers.
- Reasonable adjustments will be made for students with disabilities in consultation with the student, their parents or carers, their teachers, other Department of Education service providers and if appropriate, treating practitioners.
- Our school may consult through Student Support Group (SSG) processes and in other less formal ways.
- For more information about support available for students with disabilities, and communicating with us in relation to a student's disability, please refer to our school's Student Wellbeing and Engagement policy or contact Celene Black (Wellbeing Leader), Andrew Veal (Assistant Principal, leading Program for Students with a Disability) or Rhys Coulson (Principal).
